

SecureEnergy Sustainable Procurement Commitment

SecureEnergy acknowledges our responsibility to identifying and managing environmental, social, and economic impacts which extends to our procurement activities. We recognise that when making purchasing decisions we have an opportunity to have a positive influence on our suppliers, contractors and their employees, products, and services.

We are committed to:

Developing positive relationships with suppliers who have embedded sustainable and ethical practices within their organisation and who drive such practices within their own supply chain.

Using sustainable construction methods and reducing energy, water and material use and waste generation.

Supporting job creation for local communities and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders.

Integrating sustainability when procuring products and services, with an emphasis on environmental attributes as well as other social and ethical criteria as appropriate.

Facilitating opportunities for small- and-medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) and social businesses.

Managing people ethically and upholding human rights and fair labour management practices.

Sourcing locally from credible and certified businesses.

Complying with all applicable laws, in accordance with the principles of the International Labor Organisation, the UN Global Compact and the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights.
